

Breath & Space birth rehearsal workshops

With Bernadette King, BWYDip, ITECDips APM & IHM, FEDANT registered 11790

These workshops ARE NOT the same as Hypnobirthing. However they make an ideal complement to them & you will learn different things.

You will learn:

- How preparation for labour is useful in the last weeks of pregnancy
- the various signs & symptoms of labour
- The integral role that good breathing techniques can have throughout this process – the most important tool!
- Strategies to cope with early first stage of labour
- Strategies to cope with super – fast labour
- Management skills for established labour
- Positions, movements, sound for labour to help you stay “open” in the body
- Ways to use a “birthing ball”
- Use of water in labour
- The impact of fear and coping skills
- Use of massage, acupuncture, reflexology in labour
- Positive visualisation techniques
- The third stage of labour
- Early days with a newborn emotions and hormones.
- Initial breastfeeding advice

Please bring a pen, a couple of pillows and a birthing ball, if you have one.

Bring water & a snack if you wish. All participants need to wear loose, comfortable clothing. Email or call if you would like to discuss anything prior to booking.

Please visit www.peacefulpractice.co.uk for full details about this workshop.

"I am a local midwife as well as a mum & from a professional perspective can recommend the informative & beneficial pregnancy/postnatal yoga classes and birthing workshops, which can be excellent preparation for your birth experiences."
